Departmental Records further indicated that Officer Jenkins was aware of Inmate Holden's charges

On April 24, 2019, Captain Everett Whatley was assigned as the Main Unit OIC (Officer in Charge) and Officer Mercedes Jenkins was assigned as the Culinary Security Officer. At approximately 4:20 AM, Officer Jenkins reported to Captain Whatley that she received a sealed yellow envelope, addressed to her, from the Control Room at Cross City CI. When Officer Jenkins opened the envelope, she discovered that it contained the arrest history of Inmate Holden. Officer Jenkins told Captain Whatley that she did not request the information and did not know why it was addressed to her. Officer Jenkins told Captain Whatley that she worked with Inmate Holden because he worked in Food Service. Captain Whatley submitted Incident Report No. 1904-197 to document the events.

The videograms sent in March 2019 seemed inappropriate and the child's behavior appeared to be encouraged by Officer Jenkins. Inspector Barcia contacted the Department of Children and Family Services by phone regarding the videos and Inmate Holden's sexual predator status.

In an interview, Inmate Holden choose not to make any statements regarding his relationship with Officer Jenkins nor did he discuss the circumstances regarding the images of Officer Jenkin's daughter, other than he did not think he should be judged because of his sexual predator status.

JPay records indicated that Officer Jenkins transmitted 18 written communications (electronic correspondence) to Inmate Joshua Scarver between December 16, 2018 and May 11, 2019. During this time, Inmate Scarver transmitted 14 electronic correspondence to Officer Jenkins.

No photographs or videograms were sent to Inmate Scarver.

In an interview, Inmate Scarver identified a photograph of Officer Jenkins by name and indicated that he worked with her in Food Service. Inmate Scarver testified that when he received the first e-mail, he believed that "Lana Holden" was Inmate Holden's sister. Later, Inmate Holden told Inmate Scarver that "Lana Holden" was his wife/girlfriend, not his sister. Inmate Scarver found out even later that "Lana Holden" was Officer Jenkins. Inmate Scarver did not tell Officer Jenkins not to email him anymore, but he did discuss his concerns (of corresponding with a staff member) with Inmate Holden. Inmate Scarver did not want to be in that position and stopped responding to Officer Jenkins.

Inmate Scarver testified that he had seen Officer Jenkins and Inmate Holden "disappear" multiple times while they were working in the kitchen. Inmate Scarver believed that something was going on between them, but he did not witness any romantic encounters. Inmate Scarver stated that when this kind of situation comes up, it is better (for an inmate) to know less rather than more.

JPay Records reflect that Officer Jenkins transmitted $70.00 into Inmate Samuel Darden's J-Pay Account on April 24, 2019.

Florida Department of Law Enforcement Records indicate that Inmate Darden is a registered Sexual Predator. Departmental Records indicated that Inmate Holden is currently serving Life sentence for the sexual battery of an 11-year-old.

In an interview, Inmate Darden identified a photograph of Officer Jenkins by name and indicated that he worked with her in Food Service. Inmate Darden testified that one day, Inmate Holden told him that he(Inmate Holden) wanted to give him (Inmate Darden) some money to purchase music for his tablet. Inmate Darden has a love for music and does not get money regularly put into his account. Inmate Darden believed that Inmate Holden was just being nice because Inmate Darden was like a father figure to Inmate Holden. Inmate Darden was told that "Lana Holden" was Inmate Holden's sister.

Inmate Darden worked in the kitchen with Inmate Holden and Officer Jenkins. Inmate Darden did not have knowledge that Inmate Holden and Officer Jenkins were involved in a romantic relationship. Inmate Darden did not know that Officer Jenkins was the person that had sent him the money.

Inmate Holden also testified that he put money on Inmate Darden's account so that he could put some music onto his tablet. Inmate Holden indicated he was just being nice.

Between March 5, 2019 and June 9, 2019 Inmate Holden completed 248 phone calls to phone no. 352-578-1281 using SECURUS, an audio recorded telephone system utilized by the department for inmates to make phone calls to friends and family.

SECURUS Records reflect that phone no. 352-578-1281 was registered to Erica Gill, 1901 NE 2nd Street, Gainesville, Florida 32609.

Departmental Records reflect that Erica Gill is Inmate's Holden's sister.

Inspector Barcia reviewed some of the calls made by Inmate Holden to phone no. 352-578-1281. The initial call was answered by a female presumed to be Erica Gill, Inmate Holden's sister. During that phone call, Inmate Holden also spoke to another female, presumed to be his mother. All of the other subsequent SECURUS phone calls that were reviewed by Inspector Barcia were answered by Officer Jenkins. Inspector Barcia identified Officer Jenkins by her voice and the content of the phone calls.

Officer Jenkins resigned from the Department of Corrections on June 12, 2019.

Officer Jenkins contacted Inspector Barcia from phone number [REDACTED] Ms. Jenkins declined to be interviewed in regards to the criminal investigation. Officer Jenkins told Inspector Barcia, "you have everything you need".
