In his Incident Report and sworn recorded statement dated June 24, 2010, Officer Jeffrey Kozlowski indicated the following:

He has been employed with the Department of Corrections for approximately seven (7) years and is familiar with Inmates Parker and Cruder.

On June 24, 2010, at approximately 2:15 pm, he and Officer Pierre removed victim Parker from his assigned cell B3-204 [REDACTED]. At the time victim Parker was removed from the cell, subject Cruder was inside of the cell. He was present during victim Parker's [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] At the conclusion of victim Parker's [REDACTED] he escorted the inmate back to his cell door arriving at approximately 2:30 pm.

Upon Officer Pierre's return to the cell door, subject Cruder was placed in handcuffs and victim Parker was placed inside of the cell. Subject Cruder was the first to have his handcuffs removed by Officer Kozlowski. Case Number: 10-4-4618

He initially believed the inmates were fighting, but his view into the cell was obstructed because the inmates were against the cell door window. After the inmates failed to comply with his verbal commands to stop fighting, he spontaneously administered chemical agents onto subject Cruder. However, subject Cruder continued attacking victim Parker. After the inmates moved away from the cell door window and towards the area where the toilet is located, he observed subject Cruder holding a long shiny metal weapon in his hand. He did not see from where subject Cruder retrieved the weapon. He observed subject Cruder, holding the weapon in his right hand, strike victim Parker 1-2 times on the [REDACTED] and 1-2 times [REDACTED]. He was not sure if he observed [REDACTED]. During the attack, he heard subject Cruder say to victim Parker, 1-2 times, something similar to "that will teach you to fuck with me". Victim Parker replied by telling subject Cruder to stop attacking him.

Due to subject Cruder's continuing attack on victim Parker; he administered chemical agents onto subject Cruder, a second time, striking the inmate on the face. At that time, subject Cruder ceased his attack and backed away from victim Parker. Victim Parker then fell to the floor by the cell door.

Subject Cruder did not comply with either his or Sergeant Hatcher's orders to submit to handcuffs. However, when Lieutenant Gatto arrived to the cell door, subject Cruder surrendered his weapon to the lieutenant and submitted to handcuffs.

After subject Cruder was placed in handcuffs, and removed from the cell, he and Officer Leek escorted subject Cruder out of the immediate area. While removing subject Cruder from the cell, he observed victim Parker laying on the ground [REDACTED]. He did not observe [REDACTED] (Exhibits A-1 & B-1)

Officer Kozlowski has been [REDACTED] leave since June 30, 2010, due to an unrelated incident occurring on June 29, 2010.

In his Incident Report and sworn recorded statement dated June 24, 2010, Officer Charles Jean-Pierre indicated the following:

He has been employed with the Department of Corrections for approximately five (5) years and is familiar with Inmates Cruder and Parker. He was not aware of any problems existing between the two inmates. Prior to the incident, he conducted regular [REDACTED] interval security checks of wing 3. During those checks, he did not [REDACTED]

On June 24, 2010, he was assigned to work inside B dormitory. He did not recall being present when victim Parker was removed from his cell [REDACTED]. However, at approximately 2:45 pm, he was present when Officer Kozlowski placed victim Parker back into cell B3-204 where subject Cruder was present.

Case Number: 10-4-4618

After subject Cruder was handcuffed inside of the cell, victim Parker, who was handcuffed behind his back, was placed inside of the cell. After victim Parker was placed inside of the cell, he (Pierre) left the immediate area of cell 204 to assist Officer Szczerbiak at cell 210. While in front of cell 210, he heard and observed a disturbance occurring inside of cell 204. Upon returning to cell 204, he observed subject Cruder, utilizing one hand with a closed fist, repeatedly [REDACTED]. He did not observe subject Cruder with a weapon.

Subject Cruder refused to comply with Officer Kozlowski's verbal commands to cease his attack. Subsequently, Officer Kozlowski administered chemical agents onto subject Cruder. He then heard Officer Kozlowski state "he has a weapon, he has a weapon". However, he did not see subject Cruder in possession of a weapon during the attack. However, due to subject Cruder's hand movements (thrust and overhead movements) during the attack; it appeared to him that subject Cruder was in possession of a weapon. Victim Parker did attempt to defend himself by fighting off subject Cruder while still handcuffed.

After Lieutenant Gatto arrived to the scene, he observed subject Cruder surrender a weapon to Lieutenant Gatto. However, he did not get a clear look at the weapon. (Exhibits A-2 & B-2)

In his sworn recorded statement dated June 24, 2010, Lieutenant Frank Gatto indicated the following:

He has been employed with the Department of Corrections for approximately seven (7) years and he is familiar with subject Cruder, but he is not familiar with victim Parker. He is not aware of any issues involving Inmates Cruder and Parker.

On June 24, 2010, between 2:30 – 3:00 pm, he responded to cell B3-204 in reference to an armed assault. Upon arriving to the scene, he was informed that subject Cruder assaulted victim Parker and that subject Cruder was still in possession of a weapon. He also identified Sergeant Hatcher, Officers Kozlowski, Jean-Pierre, and possibly Officer Kralle as being present at the scene.

He observed subject Cruder, inside of cell B3-204, pacing back and forth with [REDACTED] on his (Cruder) [REDACTED] white tee-shirt, and his blue inmate uniform pants. He is familiar with this [REDACTED] contained in the chemical agents utilized by the Department of Corrections.

Subject Cruder complied with his order to surrender the weapon. Upon gaining control of the weapon, he (Gatto) secured the weapon inside of his right cargo pants pocket. The weapon remained in his pocket until the time he had an opportunity to place it into an evidence container. He was not wearing gloves when the weapon was surrendered.

He provided the following description of the weapon surrendered by subject Cruder; 10" long bolt or screw, one end had been sharpened to be a pointed edge; the opposite end was wrapped in linen for a handle. He observed what appeared to be [REDACTED] on the handle of the weapon. He did not observe any substances on the sharpened end of the weapon.

Seconds after leaving the scene, he heard what appeared to be subject Cruder refusing to comply with orders to submit to hand restraints. Therefore, he returned to the cell door and ordered subject Cruder to submit to handcuffs. Subject Cruder complied with his order and was placed in handcuffs.

As subject Cruder was being removed from the area, he observed victim Parker lying on the floor and against the cell door. Victim Parker was wearing a blue v-neck inmate uniform shirt and a pair of blue inmate uniform pants. He also observed that victim Parker [REDACTED]. He did not observe any [REDACTED].

He did not recall if either subject Cruder or victim Parker made any comments (Exhibit B-3)

In his sworn recorded statement dated June 24, 2010, Officer Roger Szczerbiak indicated the following:

He has been employed with the Department of Corrections for approximately sixteen (16) years. He is familiar with subject Cruder, but not sure if he is familiar with victim Parker. He is not aware of any issues involving subject Cruder and victim Parker.

On June 24, 2010, he and Officer Pierre were removing inmates from their cells to attend a scheduled group counseling session inside of wing 3 of B-dormitory. While they and two (2) inmates were by cell 210, he was able to partially observe a disturbance occurring inside of a cell that Officer Kozlowski had just placed an inmate; cell 204.

He observed the two (2) inmates inside of the cell engaged in a tussle, and observed arms flailing as if to strike someone. However, because Officer Kozlowski was standing in front of the cell door window, his view into the cell was obstructed. As a result, during the incident he was unable to identify the two (2) inmates inside of the cell. In addition, he was not able to identify which inmate was the aggressor.

He did observe Officer Kozlowski administer chemical agents into cell B3-204 more than one time.

At no time did he observe either of the inmates inside of the cell in possession of a weapon.

He had no knowledge of how the weapon got into Cruder and Parker's cell or who the weapon belonged to. (Exhibit B-8)

After his formal interview concluded, Inmate Brockman indicated that the subject Cruder and the victim Parker were involved in an income tax fraud scam. He also indicated that subject Cruder orchestrated victim Parker's move into cell 204 because he wanted to have a sexual relationship with victim Parker.

In his sworn recorded statement dated July 6, 2010, taken by Inspector Kevin Ortiz, Inmate Roy Mason indicated the following:

He has known victim Parker for approximately 18 years and subject Cruder for approximately 1 year while in prison. Subject Cruder and victim Parker were involved in an income tax fraud scam at the prison. Victim Parker told him that subject Cruder was the mastermind of the tax fraud scam and that he owed subject Cruder $8,500.00 which they had been arguing about.

On June 24, 2010, he was housed inside of cell B3-213. From his cell door, he observed that subject Cruder was not in hand restraints when victim Parker, who was in hand restraints, was placed inside of cell 204. He then observed subject Cruder stab victim Parker multiple times with a homemade ice pick. Several minutes into the incident, officers administered chemical agents into the cell.

He described the weapon as [REDACTED], sharpened into an ice pick with a white cloth handle. One week prior to this incident, he witnessed Inmate Leo Boatman, housed inside cell 209; make the weapon. (Exhibit B-9)

In his sworn recorded statement dated July 7, 2010, taken by Inspector Kevin Ortiz, Inmate Arthur White indicated the following:

He has known victim Parker at least 10 years and subject Cruder approximately 1 year. He did not see the incident because his cell B3-102 is located on the first level below subject Cruder and victim Parker's cell, but he indicated he did hear the incident.

Subject Cruder and victim Parker were involved in a sexual relationship. Subject Cruder and victim Parker were having arguments because subject Cruder did not want victim Parker to move out of the cell and ultimately reunite with an ex-lover. Therefore, subject Cruder unsuccessfully tried to convince victim Parker to violate a department rule which would have resulted in a disciplinary report and ultimately kept victim Parker housed with him.

He believes on June 24, 2010, subject Cruder and victim Parker were involved in a fight before the stabbing, because after victim Parker left the cell [REDACTED], he heard subject Cruder say to another unknown inmate "he thinks he is tough. He thinks he got the best of me. When his fucking ass gets back, I'm going to stab his ass up. He doesn't know me and the officer are down like that". He further indicated that subject Cruder has threatened him (White) in the past.

After victim Parker was placed back into his cell, he immediately heard a disturbance coming from that cell. During the disturbance, he heard subject Cruder say that he was going to kill him (Parker).

He did not hear Officer Kozlowski voice any commands to halt the attack, until Officer Pierre arrived to the cell.

He indicated that Inmate Leo Boatman made the knife a couple of days prior to the incident. One morning 1-2 days prior to the incident, an unknown inmate orderly gave subject Cruder the knife.

(Exhibit B-10)

On July 29, 2010, in an informal interview with Inmate Leo Boatman DC# 129327, he denied he made or provided a shank to subject Cruder. It should be noted that on August 18, 2010, Inmate Boatman severely attacked Inmate Ricky Morris DC# Q16485 inside of cell B3-204 and criminal charges are pending (see related IG Case # 10-46078).

In his sworn recorded statement dated June 30, 2010, Inmate Yaico Valdes indicated the following:

He has been housed inside of cell B3-205 since May 15, 2010. His cell is located next to subject Cruder and victim Parker's cell B3-204. Subject Cruder and victim Parker were involved in a sexual relationship. He has heard the two inmates have frequent arguments about victim Parker's

Two weeks prior to June 24, 2010, between 6:00 am - 6:30 am, he heard Cruder tell an inmate orderly known as "D" to "get that". He then observed "D" retrieve a shank from a pipe chase room and give the shank to either subject Cruder or victim Parker inside of cell 204.

He provided the following description for inmate orderly "D"; B/M, height 5'11", muscular build and bald head.

He described the shank as a long ice pick with no handle.

He also claimed that 1 ½ weeks prior to the exact date of this incident, while on the recreation yard, victim Parker told him that subject Cruder was in possession of a shank.

When victim Parker was taken downstairs [REDACTED], he did see that victim Parker was in handcuffs. (Exhibit B-11)

On July 21, 2010, a review of the fixed wing surveillance video for B-dormitory wing 3 was completed for the period of June 8 - 11, 2010. The review did not corroborate Inmate Valdes' statement of inmate orderly "D"

In his sworn recorded statement dated July 6, 2010, taken by Inspector Kevin Ortiz, Inmate Craig Kerzman indicated the following:

On June 24, 2010, he was housed inside of cell B3-203 which is next door to subject Cruder and victim Parker's cell B3-204. He has heard arguments between subject Cruder and victim Parker surrounding victim Parker's [REDACTED] 3 - 4 days prior to the incident between 3:30 - 4:00 pm, he heard subject Cruder tell an unidentified officer to move victim Parker out of the cell because he (Cruder) was going to "fuck the motherfucker up". He also heard subject Cruder tell an unidentified inmate that he was going to follow up on some unknown thing and if he confirmed this unknown thing, "he was going to fuck this nigga up". Victim Parker was present inside the cell, but remained quiet during this discussion.

Days prior to the incident, subject Cruder had some unidentified inmate orderlies search the pipe chase room. He did not know why subject Cruder had the inmates search the pipe chase rooms.

On the day of the incident, he heard Officer Kozlowski tell victim Parker to get dressed [REDACTED] [REDACTED] He also saw Officer Kozlowski whispering to either subject Cruder or victim Parker.

When victim Parker returned inside the cell and after subject Cruder's hand restraints were removed, he heard someone say "Fuck nigga, you thought it was a game, I'll fucking kill you". He then heard what sounded similar to a fight occurring inside of the cell.

Officer Kozlowski did not attempt to stop the incident until after the inmates had been fighting for approximately 2 minutes. Officer Kozlowski administered chemical agents into the cell approximately 2-3 times.

He had no knowledge on how or when subject Cruder obtained the weapon. (Exhibit B-12)

In his sworn recorded statement dated July 6, 2010, taken by Inspector Kevin Ortiz, Inmate Travis Bell indicated the following:

When victim Parker returned inside the cell and after subject Cruder's hand restraints were removed, he heard what sounded similar to a struggle occurring inside of cell 204. He then heard subject Cruder say "I told you, fuck ass nigga, not to play with me".

Officer Kozlowski did not attempt to stop the incident until after the inmates had been fighting for approximately 3-7 minutes.

After the incident, when victim Parker was taken out of the cell, he was still handcuffed behind his back.

Days prior to the incident, subject Cruder had some unidentified inmate orderlies search the pipe chase room. He did not know why subject Cruder had inmates search the pipe chase rooms. He also had no knowledge on how or when subject Cruder obtained the weapon. (Exhibit B-13)

In his sworn recorded statement dated July 6, 2010, taken by Inspector Kevin Ortiz, Inmate Reginald Gamble indicated the following:

He is housed inside of cell B3-110. He recalled 1 ½ weeks prior to this incident, he witnessed subject Cruder tell an unknown staff member to move one of them out of the cell because they were having problems.

On June 24, 2010, Inmate Marcus Tobler (cell B3-109) informed him that a fight was in progress upstairs. He turned his attention to cell 204 where he observed victim Parker leaning against the cell door and eventually slump over the sink. When officers arrived to the scene, he was no longer able to see inside of the cell. (Exhibit B-14)

In his recorded statement dated July 6, 2010, taken by Inspector Kevin Ortiz, Inmate Ernie Hailey indicated the following:

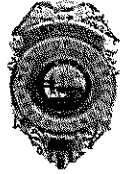

On June 24, 2010, he was housed inside of cell B3-111. He was not aware of any problems between subject Cruder and victim Parker. He observed two officers present at cell B3-204 when victim Parker was returned to the cell. After victim Parker was placed inside of the cell, he observed victim Parker's back repeatedly hit against the cell door, as if he was being pushed.

Officer Kozlowski repeatedly ordered subject Cruder to stop his attack, and administered chemical agents into the cell.

He observed Lieutenant Gatto take possession of the weapon. The weapon appeared to be an ice pick with a white handle. (Exhibit B-15)

In his sworn recorded statement dated July 6, 2010, taken by Inspector Kevin Ortiz, Inmate John Rosa indicated the following:

He is aware that victim Parker [REDACTED] subject Cruder.

He was housed inside cell B3-113 and from his cell door window; he cannot observe any activity inside of cell 204. However, he can observe activity outside of the cell. On June 24, 2010, earlier in the day, he observed subject Cruder tell another unknown inmate, via sign language, [REDACTED]

During the incident, he observed 2 officers place victim Parker inside of cell 204, victim Parker was in hand restraints and subject Cruder was not in hand restraints. He also observed officers spray chemical agents into the cell.

He could not hear if anything was said by either the officers or the inmates during the incident because of the loud noise inside the wing.

He had no information on how or when subject Cruder obtained the weapon. (Exhibit B-16)

In his recorded statement dated July 6, 2010, taken by Inspector Kevin Ortiz, Inmate Deandre Crutchfield indicated the following:

He did not know either subject Cruder or victim Parker. He did not know why subject Cruder attacked victim Parker. He had no knowledge of how or when Cruder obtained the weapon.

On June 24, 2010, he was housed inside of cell B3-114. From that cell door window he cannot see directly into cell B3-204. However, he observed Officer Pierre and another unidentified officer remove an inmate from that cell.

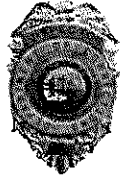

Upon the inmate's return to that cell, Officer Pierre and Officer Kozlowski were present at the cell door. He heard an officer tell subject Cruder inside of the cell to go to the back of the cell. Subject (Cruder) was not placed in handcuffs. After victim Parker was placed inside of the cell, the cell door was closed and he heard a disturbance coming from the cell.

Officer Kozlowski repeatedly ordered subject Cruder to submit to hand restraints and administered chemical agents into the cell. Later, subject Cruder surrendered his weapon, submitted to hand restraints, and was removed from the cell.

He described the surrendered weapon as appearing to be similar to a screw driver. (Exhibit B-17)

He is very familiar with both subject Cruder and victim Parker. He was not aware of any existing issues between the two inmates. He was housed inside cell B3-214.

During the incident, he did not observe any activity inside of cell 204. However, after hearing a disturbance coming from cell 204, he went to his cell door window and observed officers tell subject Cruder to cease his actions and to submit to hand restraints. When subject Cruder was removed from the cell, he heard Cruder say "kill that fuck nigga".

He had no information on how or when subject Cruder obtained the recovered weapon. (Exhibit B-18)

In his sworn recorded statement dated July 6, 2010, Inmate Marcus Tolbar indicated the following:

He and victim Parker were cellmates in cell B3-106. He believes that subject Cruder requested that victim Parker be moved into his cell (B3-204) because it was common knowledge that they were lovers.

On June 24, 2010, he was housed inside of cell B3-109. He observed officers escorting victim Parker back to his cell [REDACTED]. He did not see officers handcuff subject Cruder before placing victim Parker into the cell. After victim Parker was inside of the cell, he saw one of the two (2) white officers walk away from the cell and go downstairs. He then heard a "thumping" sound coming from the cell and saw the cell door shaking. He observed subject Cruder stab victim Parker several times with a knife. An officer administered chemical agents on subject Cruder because he would not surrender his weapon.

He heard that subject Cruder was angry with victim Parker after discovering [REDACTED]

He described the knife as 10" long with a slightly curved point. He and the other inmates inside the wing saw the knife after Lieutenant Gatto recovered it from the cell.

He had no information on how or when subject Cruder obtained the recovered weapon. (Exhibit B-19)
